

Just how appealing is the thought of spending Christmas or New Year in a Dorset village?

Wancombe Cottage is the perfect location to spend your country Christmas.

You will find a bottle of fizzy in the fridge together with a few extras to make your Christmas or New Year a special occasion.

There will be plenty of logs for the open fire and the cottage will be decorated in traditional style.

There is satellite TV and a DVD player.

You don't even have to leave the village, because all the magical components are right here in Cerne Abbas.

The village shop sells everything from wine, fine cheeses, pate, olives and organic cream to the basics of milk, bread (restricted deliveries over Christmas) and papers. Many products are locally sourced for that real Dorset experience.

You can walk to the Parish Church for midnight mass on Christmas Eve.

On New Years Eve you can party 'til late in one or all of the three village pubs, where fancy dress is optional, but 'Old Lang Syne' in the square at midnight is compulsory!

And if at any stage you feel you have over-indulged somewhat then there are dozens of walks direct from the cottage; we will happily advise you on the options.

Take our word for it, Christmas and New Year in Cerne Abbas are too good to miss!
